Cheshire Rural Touring Arts

Welcome to Cheshire Rural Touring Arts' Autumn 2025 Brochure!

The highest quality professional theatre, music, literature and dance; live performances brought to rural venues in Cheshire for you to enjoy.

How to buy tickets: Tickets for shows are available direct from the venue via phone or email. Please note these community venues are run by volunteer promoters, they are not theatre 'box offices' open at all times.

Most venues also offer online ticket booking.

 Shows which have the online booking facility have this symbol in the brochure listing.

Online tickets can be booked via our website:

cheshireruraltouringarts.co.uk

or for some via Ticketsource:

ticketsource.co.uk/cheshireruraltouringarts

Ticket booking contact numbers, are listed next to each show. Promoter emails and disabled access information for all venues can be found at the back of the brochure.

Ticket prices: Ticket prices vary for each venue and show, but all range within £9 - £15 (however, tickets for children's shows may be cheaper).

Please check with the venue directly or online for the ticket prices.

MUSIC

Duane Forrest

Bob Marley: How Reggae Changed the World

Join Duane Forrest on an acoustic journey through the roots of reggae to the global influence of Bob Marley. Experience acoustic renditions of legendary reggae songs that have reshaped countless lives, including Duane's own. From the origin of reggae to Marley's transcendent legacy, immerse yourself in the soulful melodies and transformative power of this iconic music. Audience members are invited to sing along and get involved in this interactive musical experience.

Duane Forrest is a Toronto-based playwright & multimedia artist blending jazz, reggae, bossa nova, soul, and smooth vocals. He has released 3 albums, with tours in Canada, Europe, and Central America. In 2017, Duane debuted "Climb," a solo music storytelling show at the Toronto Fringe Festival, receiving praise from founder Gregory Nixon. "Climb" was also showcased at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival in 2019 and 2022, and the Milan Fringe Festival in 2023, where it was a runner-up for "Show of the Festival." His new show, "Bob Marley: How Reggae Changed the World," earned a 5-star review from Broadway Baby. Duane continues to push artistic boundaries, exploring social justice themes through his music and theatre.

"Duane shares the roots of reggae, Bob Marley's life, and the personal significance of his music, creating a historical lesson and a love letter to cultural heritage... Doctors should prescribe it as an antidepressant"

MUSICAL COMEDY/THE

Introducing Victor and Albert

Purveyors of Fine Musical Comedy

Join classically trained, identical twins Professor Victor and Dr Albert for an evening of riotous comedy, interaction, original songs, games, mayhem and a sprinkling of magic; it's an immense amount of fun from start to finish.

A good old-fashioned, feel-good, two-man variety show brought kicking and screaming into the 21st Century – a two-man music-hall if you will.

I don't think I've laughed so much in a short space of time – in a long time! They were absolutely fantastic!"

Michaela Wylde – BBC Radio Shropshire

"Your show was an absolute outrage and has brought nothing but disgrace upon our village. Keep up the good work. Cheers!" Doug Jenner

Jali Bakary Konteh & Sarah Deere-Jones

Playing Kora & Harp

Jali Bakary is the grandson and son, respectively, of the legendary Gambian kora players Alhaji Bai Konte (who helped to bring kora music to the wider world with his iconic album Kora Melodies from the Republic of the Gambia, West Africa in 1973) and Dembo Konte. Born into this remarkable musical lineage and steeped in Gambia's griot tradition, Jali Bakary is the latest torchbearer for his family's kora legacy on the world stage. He has performed extensively throughout West and North Africa, as well as in the UK and the rest of Europe (WOMAD, Roskilde Festival). Like his father and grandfather before him, Jali Bakary brings his own personal touch and innovations to traditional songs with unique melodic and rhythmic arrangements. A hugely versatile musician. "It is difficult to overstate the regal, nearly divine, stature" of the Konte family in the echelons of West African music - Banning Eyre.

Sarah studied classical harp & singing at the Royal Academy of Music where she gained her LRAM and LGSM diplomas in harp performance and was awarded the Julia Leney prize, & in 2015 she was elected an Associate to the Royal Academy. Sarah performed in London for years with professional symphony, opera and ballet orchestras, and now performs her own arrangements and original music for harp & voice at music festivals & clubs and traditional music venues across the UK. Her compositions and performances on traditional harp have been broadcast in UK, Europe and America, and she has done guest interviews on Classic FM, BBC Radio Four and appeared many times on television. She has been invited to lecture and perform at the major harp festivals of the world, Big Sky and Somerset harp festivals USA, Harp Holiday Australia, Dinan & Lorient harp festivals in Brittany, and the Medieval 'Music in the Dales' festival, Welsh International harp and Edinburgh harp festivals in UK.

DANCE/THEATRE

RTDI presents Bobak Champion I'm Muslamic Don't Panik!

RURAL TOURING
DANCE INITIATIVE

A hilarious and heart-felt story of one man's journey to Iran to discover his cultural heritage.

Featuring a captivating mixture of live music, spoken word, break-dancing and comedy.

Join Bobak on his journey of self-discovery as he meets a whole cast of weird and wonderful characters - from women defiantly running the first (and last) ever Tehran marathon, to stumbling into an underground breakdance battle.

Whilst the media frequently portray the Middle East as a frightening and dangerous place, Bobak shows us the positivity, joy, family and community that we rarely get to see. This is a beautiful story that will have you laughing-out-loud and leave you feeling full of hope.

After the show, enjoy a chat with your neighbours and the artists as we serve traditional Persian tea and date biscuits called Kolompeh. Everyone is welcome.

"These stories are still few and far between on our stages, and in a world divided by religion, politics and borders, the show provides the perfect stimulation to develop empathy." Audience member.

"So warm hearted that it is impossible not to enjoy." ★★★★★ The Guardian

"Immerse yourself in Bobak's world, it will enliven and educate you." ★★★★★ Fairy Powered Productions

Supported by RTDI - Rural Touring Dance Initiative.

Black Country Touring WILD

Black Country Touring presents 'WILD', a new theatre production with an ensemble cast of four, a rich soundscape and songs that invite the audience to reflect on what 'Wild' means to them.

What does it conjure up for you? Is it a moment standing at the edge of a raging sea, or being lifted up and spat out of a whirling tornado; running for your life through city streets or the wilderness at the edge of your home; coming face to face with a wolf, or the animal within that can't always be tamed?

The show takes you through a journey of emotions from exhilarating fear to childlike joy. Visit remote hills, mountains, dark forest, and towns, and find out just how 'Wild' these places can be.

"Awesome, intense, real, honest, gripping, brave, fun, moving, shocking, memorable, vivid, vibrant!"

"What a lovely experience this has been. Brilliant storytelling and singing."

"Triggered visceral emotion and reminded me how wonderful it is to be alive and to be a creature in such a powerful world! Fantastically creative."

SONGS & STORYTELLING

Cumberlandia Collective

Light in the Darkness

Stories and Songs to Lighten the Dark Times.

Live music and performance storytelling from Cumberlandia Collective: Angie Power, Dave Camlin, Gilli Goodfellow and story-teller Jessie McMeekin

"In winter, when the green earth is sleeping beneath a blanket of snow, this is the time for storytelling."

Spend an evening embracing the wildness of winter with spine-tingling music and spell-binding wintery tales.

Cumberlandia are a collective of Cumbrian singers, musicians and storytellers who weave magical narratives through stories and songs, inspired by the traditions of the British Isles, and the turning year. Story-teller Jessie McMeekin and musician Dave Camlin are joined by singers Angie Power and Gilli Goodfellow to form an ensemble who frame Jessie's powerful and inspiring stories with an enchanting sound world of rich harmony.

This show is for anyone who finds winter hard, and who finds the commercial juggernaut surrounding Christmas a bit overwhelming. It's designed as an antidote to all that. re-connecting us to the rhythms of the natural world through stories and song, as we cycle through the darkness and back to the light once more. The show is aimed at grown-ups – although there's nothing that's unsuitable for children, it's not designed for them. It will appeal most strongly to audiences who are already engaged with ideas around connecting to our environment and our communities.
